PROFESSIONAL OBJECTIVE:

After a decade of working as the "piano man" on cruise ships, Brad is now planning to take all the experience that he has gained and is relaunching his career in Toronto, as an entertainer.

Developing a very strong "Piano Bar Show" over the past nine years, this show can now be adjusted to fit any restaurant/lounge/pub environment.

The show is both interactive and fun for the audience.

Being known for Brad's "Dirty Show", this adult themed show features song parodies and many original songs.

Of course requests will always be accommodated, and his quick wit keeps the laughter going and his antics, that will make everyone definitely need another cocktail.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT:

Originally from Winnipeg, Manitoba, Brad Alexander comes from a musical family and was already playing the piano by the age of five.

In December of 1998 Brad started working as a piano bar entertainer "Trax V" in downtown Toronto.

In July of 2000 he left "Trax II" to work at "Zipperz" piano bar. During his employment at "Zipperz", Toronto publication "NOW Magazine" voted the bar the best piano bar of 2001.

In 2004, while on a "Carnival Cruise Lines" vacation he performed "The One" by "Elton John" in the guest talent show and was hired 3 weeks later to work in the ship's piano bar.

He is now is one of the senior piano bar entertainers in the Carnival fleet.

With "Elton John" and "Billy Joel" as major musical influences, Brad's style and selection of music have made him popular in downtown Toronto venues.

His repertoire ranges from classic pop/rock from the 50's to the 90's as well as Classical, Jazz, and Broadway.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE:

Brad began winning music competitions at the age of nine on an almost yearly basis.

He was performing at the CNE when he was 12 years old to promote the "Canadian Bureau for the Advancement of Music" as a success story.

By thirteen he was singing in school choirs, in the school stage band and accompanying the jazz choir on piano.

Since the age of sixteen, he has been an active piano teacher with the "Canadian Bureau for the Advancement of Music" and is now a supervisor, examiner, and member of the Board of Directors.

He began teaching at "North Agincourt Public School" in September 1987, teaching for 18 years, and eventually offered private music lessons from his home. He has taught thousands of students over 18 years.

Brad's career in the pop music scene began with a rock and roll cover band hiring him to play keyboards and sing.

Since then he has played with several rock / pop bands and also works free-lance as a solo performer, playing the piano and singing in clubs, at fund-raisers, and weddings.

For the past nine years Brad has been featuring his "Dirty Show" aboard various "Carnival Cruise Line" ships. This show has been seen by hundreds of thousands of people and has been a favorite on various blogs and websites over the years.
